Zyto Compass Scanning! Book your appointment to receive a product scan specific for your body. Yes--you heard right! Our bodies communicate in many ways. Our stomach tells us when we are hungry. We feel the pain of a bruise. The Zyto compass communicates with your body to see what your body desires at the moment.

This scanning addresses 76 biomarkers in the body through the hand and shows which Young Living products your body desires to use. It is a helpful way to target the products most beneficial for you. Learn what Young Living products your body desires, start using them, and experience the results! Take the guesswork out of essential oils. This scan is fast and efficient. Zero in on what your body is in desiring in about 10 minutes!
